St Mary of the Angels PSR newsletter: As we were in church today praying the Stations of the Cross, one of the 1st Graders asked why the Altar was decorated with Red. He said, “It should be purple”. I thought that was a very good observation, since the color for the season of Lent is purple, which represents penance. Since today is Palm Sunday, we have entered into Holy Week. The Color for Palm Sunday is red foreshadowing the upcoming death of Jesus.

Why do Catholics a crucifix in church? Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith. March 2018 The crucifix – a cross with Jesus’ body on it – reminds us of the price of our salvation and God’s infinite love for us; “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son to death on a cross” (John 3:16). A crucifix helps us to remember that the sacrifice of Christ and the sacrifice of the Eucharist are one single sacrifice (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1545). During Mass, Jesus, through the priest, offers himself to the Father for us.
