Dennis Francis Clark, son of Francis and Viola (Schiltz) Clark, was born November 22, 1934, in Wien, Missouri. On June 21, 1955, he married Norma Jane Boley.

Denny attended school in Wien and entered the US Army in 1953 and served at Fort Campbell Kentucky. Following military service, Denny began his career in the HVAC and electrical field. In 1972, he along with his brother Neal, established Clark Brothers Refrigeration and Electric in Brookfield. Denny's lifelong commitment to Clark Brothers, their customers and the community endured throughout the remainder of his life. In 1995 he transitioned his ownership in Clark Brothers to his son, Tom but remained committed to the business and always took tremendous pride in being a part of that business. He loved his years with Clark Brothers. His work and his family (especially his many grandkids) were truly his life.

He was a member of the Immaculate Conception Church in Brookfield.

Survivors include his wife of 62 years, Norma Clark of the home; five children, Becky Cleveland (Doug) of Brookfield, Doug Clark (Sara) of Lee's Summit, Jane Scanlon (Mark) of Lee's Summit, Tom Clark (and friend Diana Adler) of Brookfield and Cindy Bicknell (Brian) of Lee's Summit; thirteen grandchildren, Ian Thudium, Lesley Thudium Hane, Sam Thudium, Chase Hunter, Daria Hunter, Madison Clark, Maggie Scanlon, Abbie Scanlon, Taylor Clark, Mackenzie Clark, Skylar Clark, Brooke Bicknell and Morgan Bicknell; seven great-grandchildren, Collin, Sydnie and Lane Thudium, Emma, Nolan and Logan Hane, and Charli Clark. In addition, he is survived by his brother, Neal Clark (Karen) of Brookfield, sister Shelly Jordan of Fort Madison, Iowa and brother-in-law Wayne Boley of Brookfield; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Francis and Viola Clark; sister, Joetta Peterson and brother, Gary Bill Clark.
