Obituary

Florence Carolyn Langenderfer (nee Schumacher), age 99, of Glendale, Ohio, died February 5, 2014 at Maple Knoll Village. She was born at Wien, Missouri, on October 10, 1914, to Joseph J. and Frances (Meinhardt) Schumacher. She was predeceased by her husband, Fintan A. Langenderfer who died in 1977. She was the second oldest of 5 children, and is survived by her younger sister Sylvia Dunning of Wien, MO., as well as 5 children: Rev. Carl J. Langenderfer, OFM, of Cincinnati, OH., Rev. Max F. Langenderfer, OFM., of Savanna-La-Mar, Jamaica, Robert A. Langenderfer of Florence, KY., Dr. Mary C. Langenderfer of Missoula, MT., and Rita F. Milleson of Seattle, WA., 5 grandchildren: Rob Langenderfer, Tim Langenderfer, and Julie Langenderfer of Florence, KY., and Meagen Clendenen of Seattle, WA., and Hayley Milleson of Oakland, CA., and 2 great-grandchildren: Donavon Langenderfer and Sierra Langenderfer, of Johnson City, TN. Florence was a long time homemaker, worked as receptionist at St. Anthony Friary for 20 years, was a member of the St. Gabriel Altar Society, and the Glenmary Missioners Sewing Guild. She was an avid reader, gardener, raised flowers, quilter, and a world explorer by means of her many maps and books. She had a wide variety of interests as evidenced by her collections of books, articles, artifacts and pictures. She was particularly interested in people, especially her care givers and friends, and managed to remember names and stories from her early childhood in Wien, Missouri, as well as all the other people and places where she lived and worked and traveled during her long and exciting life. Visitation, Saturday, February 8, 2014 from 9-10:45 AM at St. Gabriel Catholic Church. Mass of Eternal Rest Saturday, February 8 at 11 AM, also at the church. Burial at Oak Hill Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Franciscan Friar Works, 1615 Vine Street, Cincinnati, OH 45202.
