Vincent Shirley Lynch
April 07, 1927 - June 22, 2016

Vincent Shirley Lynch, 89, of Macon, MO, passed away at his home on Wednesday, June 22, 2016.

Shirley was born on April 7, 1927, in Atlanta, MO, the son of William Patrick and Maude (Welsh) Lynch. He served in the United States Navy. Shirley was united in marriage to Marjorie Ash on September 3, 1949, at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Macon. He was a member of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, Knights of Columbus, and the Callao American Legion Post 360. Shirley owned Lynch Service Station in Callao and New Cambria, Lynch Laundry-Mat in New Cambria, Co-owner and operator of Littrel LP Gas Company, and was a leader in the New Cambria Community Betterment.

Shirley is survived by his wife, Marjorie, one daughter, Catherine Lynch of Springfield, MO, three grandchildren, Gary Anspach and his wife Jenny of Columbia, MO, Rachel Anspach of Kirksville, MO, and David Anspach of Moberly, MO, one sister, Dolores Gasser of Shawnee, KS, and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one daughter, Angela, one brother-in-law, Bill Gasser, and one niece, Katherine Gasser.

Mass of Christian Burial will be 10:00 am, Saturday, June 25, 2016, at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Macon. Burial, with full military honors, will be in the St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery in Macon. Visitation will be from 5-7 pm, Friday, at the Greening-Eagan-Hayes Funeral Home in Macon with a prayer service and Rosary to begin at 4:30 pm. The family suggests memorials to the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church or the Callao American Legion Post 360.
