Mass attendance: (approximate #) Sun May 2 # 71

Totus Tuus will be coming to St. Mary of the Angels June 27 through July 2. There is a day program for elementary students and then a two-hour program in the evening for 7th through 12th Grades. There will be a team of 4 from our diocese coming to lead the program. We will need volunteer help to make it a success. We must provide meals for the team of 4, but we can either have the kids bring a sack lunch or we can provide lunch for them too. We can provide before and after care if that helps parents with their work schedule. If transportation is an issue, we can work on that also. Received some more information on Totus Tuus, (sheets on back table) that needs to be filled out for all students attending. You can email it back to Joe or mail 14821 Bee Branch Ave., Salisbury, 65281

This Sunday's Reading from the website of <https://www.loyolapress.com/>

First Reading Acts of the Apostles 10:25-26,34-35,44-48

The gift of the Holy Spirit comes to Cornelius and his household, and they are baptized.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 98:1,2-3,3-4 A song of praise for God's salvation

Second Reading 1 John 4:7-10 God is love.

Gospel Reading John 15:9-17 Jesus commands his disciples to love one another.

Background on the Gospel Reading Today's Gospel follows immediately after the Gospel proclaimed last week, in which Jesus taught that he was the vine and that his disciples were the branches. In the example of the vine and the branches, we learned that our union with Jesus will lead to fruitful service. Today's reading extends this teaching to describe the kind of service that Christians are called upon to offer to others.

When John wrote this Gospel, his community was influenced by a set of religious beliefs called Gnosticism. It appears that one of John's intentions was to distinguish Christian belief from the beliefs held by the Gnostics.

Evidence of this can be found in today's Gospel.

One of the tenets of Gnostic teaching was the importance of knowledge, or gnosis, as the determining aspect of faith. We read today's Gospel as a response to this teaching. In John's Gospel, we hear Jesus affirm that he is known by the Father and that his disciples will know the Father by knowing Jesus. In this passage, however, Jesus reminds his disciples that this knowledge is to be expressed in love. Those who know Jesus well—and Jesus says that his disciples do know him—will love one another. Knowledge leads to love, which leads to action. John reminds his community that Jesus taught that love is the sign of a true disciple and, thus, a true Christian. Even more, a true disciple shows a particular kind of love, sacrificial love.

In the Greek, there are two words for love that are used in this passage. The first is agape. The second is philia. The first word is most often used to describe love for other persons and for God. It is understood as the highest and most perfect kind of love. The second word is used to describe the affection of friendship. In this context, John appears to use these words as synonyms. The root of the Greek word for friend comes from this second term for love, philia. By using this word, Jesus transforms the terms of his relationship with his disciples and redefines for them their relationship with God. In the Hebrew Scriptures, faith in God made one a servant of God.

Here Jesus teaches that his relationship to his disciples is based on friendship, not servitude.

Another aspect of Gnostic belief taught that a believer was an elect person, chosen and set apart from the world.

John reminds his community that Jesus also taught that a disciple is one who had been chosen—one who had been chosen by Jesus. To be chosen by Jesus, however, is not to be set apart from the world. Instead, to be chosen by Jesus is to be sent to serve the world as he did. The disciples of Jesus were chosen and were sent into the world to bear fruit by serving others, by sacrificing for others, in love.

This reading, like last week's, is part of Jesus' Last Supper discourse. In the context of John's Gospel, these words are spoken before Jesus' Crucifixion. We read his instruction to the disciples in light of his death and Resurrection. We know that Jesus himself gives us the greatest example of the kind of love and service that he teaches to his disciples. He has, in fact, laid down his life for his friends, for his disciples, and for us. Through his death and Resurrection, we have received the grace to love others as Jesus has commanded.

Newman Ministry on college campus: This year, ensuring high school grads get connected to college campus ministry will be easier than ever, with the Newman Connect App! Instead of waiting for a campus minister to reach out when they get to campus this fall, students can download Newman Connect for their iPhone or Android device and find their college campus ministry, instantly!

Catholic Rural Life Novena to St. Isidore, patron saint of farmers, using the suggested bulletin and pulpit announcement and graphic as follows: Every year hundreds of people join together for a very special novena to St. Isidore, patron saint of farmers and Catholic Rural Life. Given the essential nature of farmers, farmworkers, and all who are involved in food production and distribution, we are again hosting the novena virtually this year! The novena will begin on Friday, May 7, and conclude on Saturday, May 15, the Feast of St. Isidore. Each day a bishop will lead us through the novena, lifting up all the intentions of rural communities throughout our country. Bishop McKnight will be leading the novena on May 10! For more information and to see the schedule go to: <https://catholicrurallife.org/virtualnovena/>

The Salisbury Steak Festival is adding an event on Sunday, June 13th @ 1-3pm. at the City Park stage. It will be a time to gather together as one to sing praise and worship. All area churches and and people that are wanting to come and listen and/or join in are welcome to come.. Music will be provided by anyone that wished to take part in it. I am on the committee and I am asking for anyone interested in participating in the singing/playing/reading to call, text or email me soon.
